An example of adding an employee:

After adding the employee and hitting save (shown below)

You can see the list updated to include our number 1 employee Edgar!

When you select reports you will get 4 report options:

Would you like to view the i-inventory report, e-employee report,

If you run an inventory report you will get a print out of the local movielist.txt file! You also can just run a report for the number of movies you have in inventory by selecting n. The same options are present for the employeelist.txt file
